

Documentation

Upload an image to upload an image , simply press in the "upload image" button. an pop up appear and from ther eyou can select an jpg or png file

Draw a box

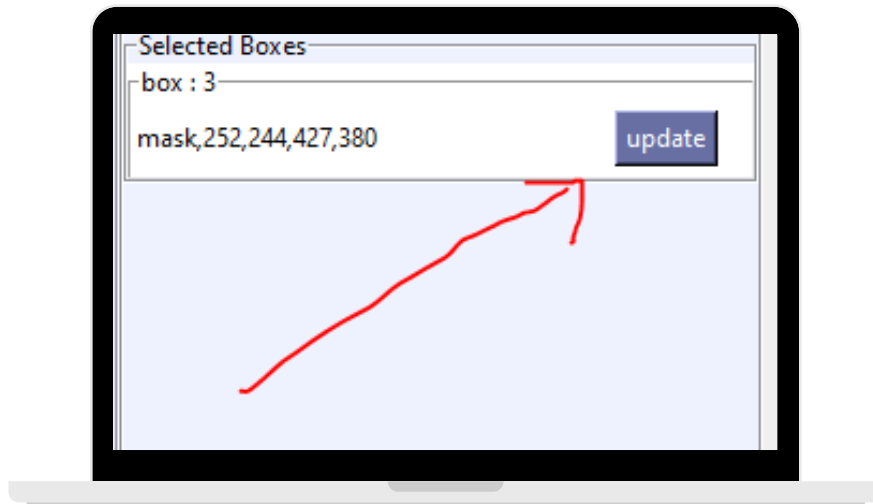

to draw a box , you must first uplaod an image , next you press "box selection" button. and new window appear to select your ractangle. after that a new input form appear in the right side of the screen to confirme and select the specifich category .confirm your choice by pressing in "add box" button

Documentation

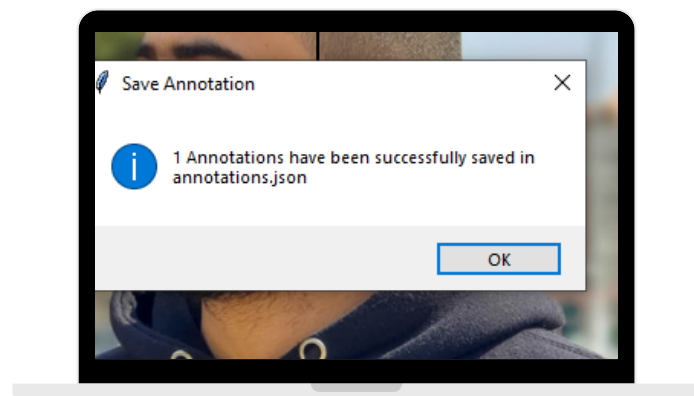

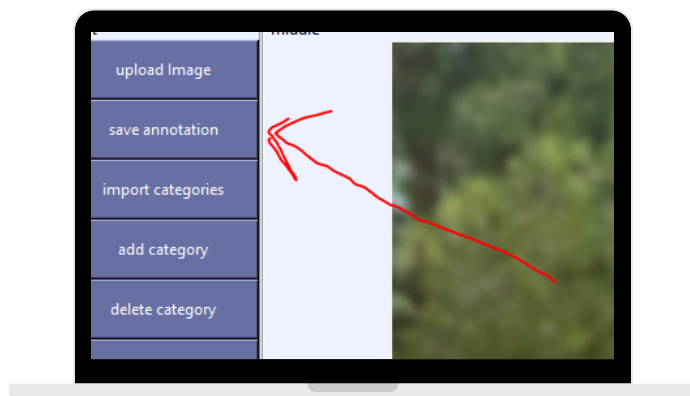

update a box

to update a specific box , you simply press in the "update "button . the input form will appear again so you can change the category or the rectangle coordinates . confirm your changes by pressing again in "add box " button , a new rectangle will appear in the canvas area

save annotation

to save your work , after you create your box , simply press in the "save annotation" button a pop up will tell you the success of the process or if something goes wrong . to verify that your work has been saved you can check the folders where you run the application , you will find a file "annotations.json" that contains all the saved annotations

Documentation

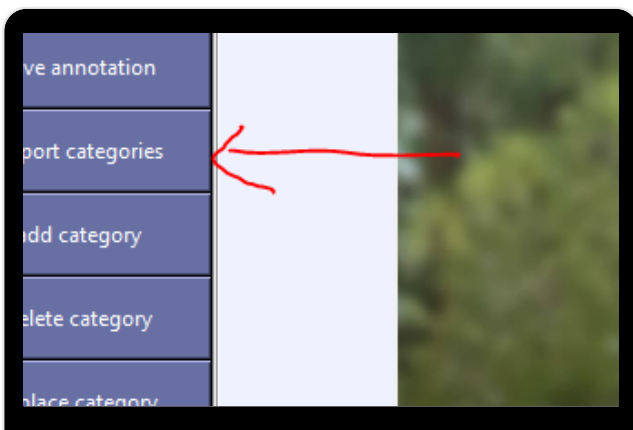

add categories

to add categories to your workshop , you have to solution :

you can upload a file that contains list of categories by pressing the "import categories" button or you can category by category by pressing "add category" .

nb: to import categories you must create a json file in this format :

```
{"categories" : ["category1","category2","categoryN"]}
```

replace or delete category to replace or delete a category you can simply pressing replace/delete category a new input form appear in the left side of screen from where you can select the catgeory that you want to replace /delete .after your confirmation you notice that all created box with that category are updated with the new one or have a empty category if you have chosen to delete the category

